Verify Student and/or Parent's Marital Status

The purpose of this form is to clarify your or your parents' Federal tax filing status for the calendar year of 2016. When completing the FAFSA your or your parents' "marital status" does not match the "tax filing status" in accordance with the IRS. This form must be completed, signed at the bottom, and returned to:

Great Bay Community College –Office of Financial Aid 320 Corporate Drive, Portsmouth NH 03801 or Fax to 603-334-6308

This form is required for:

- Student
- Parent

1. According to the FAFSA your and/or your parents listed your marital status as:

- Single
- Married/Remarried/Domestic Partner
- Separated
- Divorced
- Widowed
- Unmarried and living together

2. The tax filing status listed is:

- Single
- Head of Household
- Married filing jointly
- Married filing separately
- Qualifying widower

* Please be aware that if you or your parent is currently remarried, spousal information is required on the FAFSA, even if you qualified to file separate 2016 tax returns. ****

Please document the reasoning for your 2016 tax filing status:
